Interactive comment on "Development of a numerical model of a novel leading edge protection component for wind turbine blades" by William Finnegan et al.

William Finnegan et al.

william.finnegan@nuigalway.ie

Thank you for your review. In response to your comment, I have included the following sentence in Section 4. Conclusion: "Additionally, there is scope to extend the study to develop and explore other protection systems and investigate the effect of stress distribution, stiffness adhesive and viscoelastic properties on the system"