Wind Energy Science

Att. Editor Amy Robertson

File submission for manuscript wes-2022-59

We submit here the manuscript file and associated files for the accepted works "Lifetime prediction of turbine blades using global precipitation products from satellites".

In the manuscript file, we have updated one reference by Shaw et al. 2022 and we have updated the overview maps in Figure 1 to comply with the journal guidelines. The rest of the manuscript is identical to the previous version.
