

Letter to the Associate Editor

for the paper: “Slow wake recovery and low turbulence behind wind farms parameterized in mesoscale simulations” accepted for publication in Wind Energy Science.

Dear Associate Editor,

We appreciate the decision to accept our work for publication in Wind Energy Science. Throughout the review process, the constructive comments by the reviewers and the Associate Editor helped us refine and improve the manuscript.

The current version of the manuscript includes only minor textual corrections, which can be verified in the track-changes file. No substantive changes have been made to the content.

On behalf of all authors,

William.
